Data Center (BLR-1)

Bengaluru (Bangalore) is one of the world's top five technology clusters, and our BLR-1 facility is located at its interconnected heart. The data center is an 80,000 ft², 4MW facility situated in Pattandur Agrahara in the Whitefield district to the East of Bangalore, also known as the 'Silicon Valley of India'. Whitefield is the densest data center cluster in the whole of Karnataka state, which is home to over 5,500 IT companies including many global cloud and internet leaders.

“ With Iron Mountain, we have a highly available, redundant computing environment for the cloud ... that helps us meet customer demand today and allows us to expand quickly to support business growth tomorrow. ”
